

2014 ANNUAL REPORT

Our Mission

To prevent child abuse and neglect through education, treatment and advocacy.

Letter from the Board President Sarah E. Hansel

Every year, we are proud of what The Parent Child Center of Tulsa accomplishes in providing services to prevent child abuse and neglect through education, treatment and advocacy. This past year, we were particularly proud to facilitate the launch of a new initiative with Zero to Three National Center for Infants, Toddlers and Families. The Safe Babies Court Team shapes practice in the judicial and child welfare systems around what is best for babies. We also undertook the expansion of our Never Shake a Baby program in all area hospitals to parents of all newborns. We are grateful to the foundations, corporate and individual donors, and Tulsa Area United Way, who have made these accomplishments possible through their funding and trust in our ability to lead important systems change and quality improvements. As a result, our programs continue to expand and in 2014 touched the lives of more than 57,000 children and their families.

All of us on the Board of Directors at The Parent Child Center are proud that through the work of the staff, the support of our donors ~ especially our friends in the Circle of Hope Society ~ and the success of our programs, The Parent Child Center is recognized and respected by its regional and national peers as a leader in primary, secondary and tertiary child abuse prevention services.

As the Board provides governance and oversees stewardship of the resources entrusted to The Parent Child Center, we look forward to reaching more children and parents, and offering hope and a brighter future to those we serve.

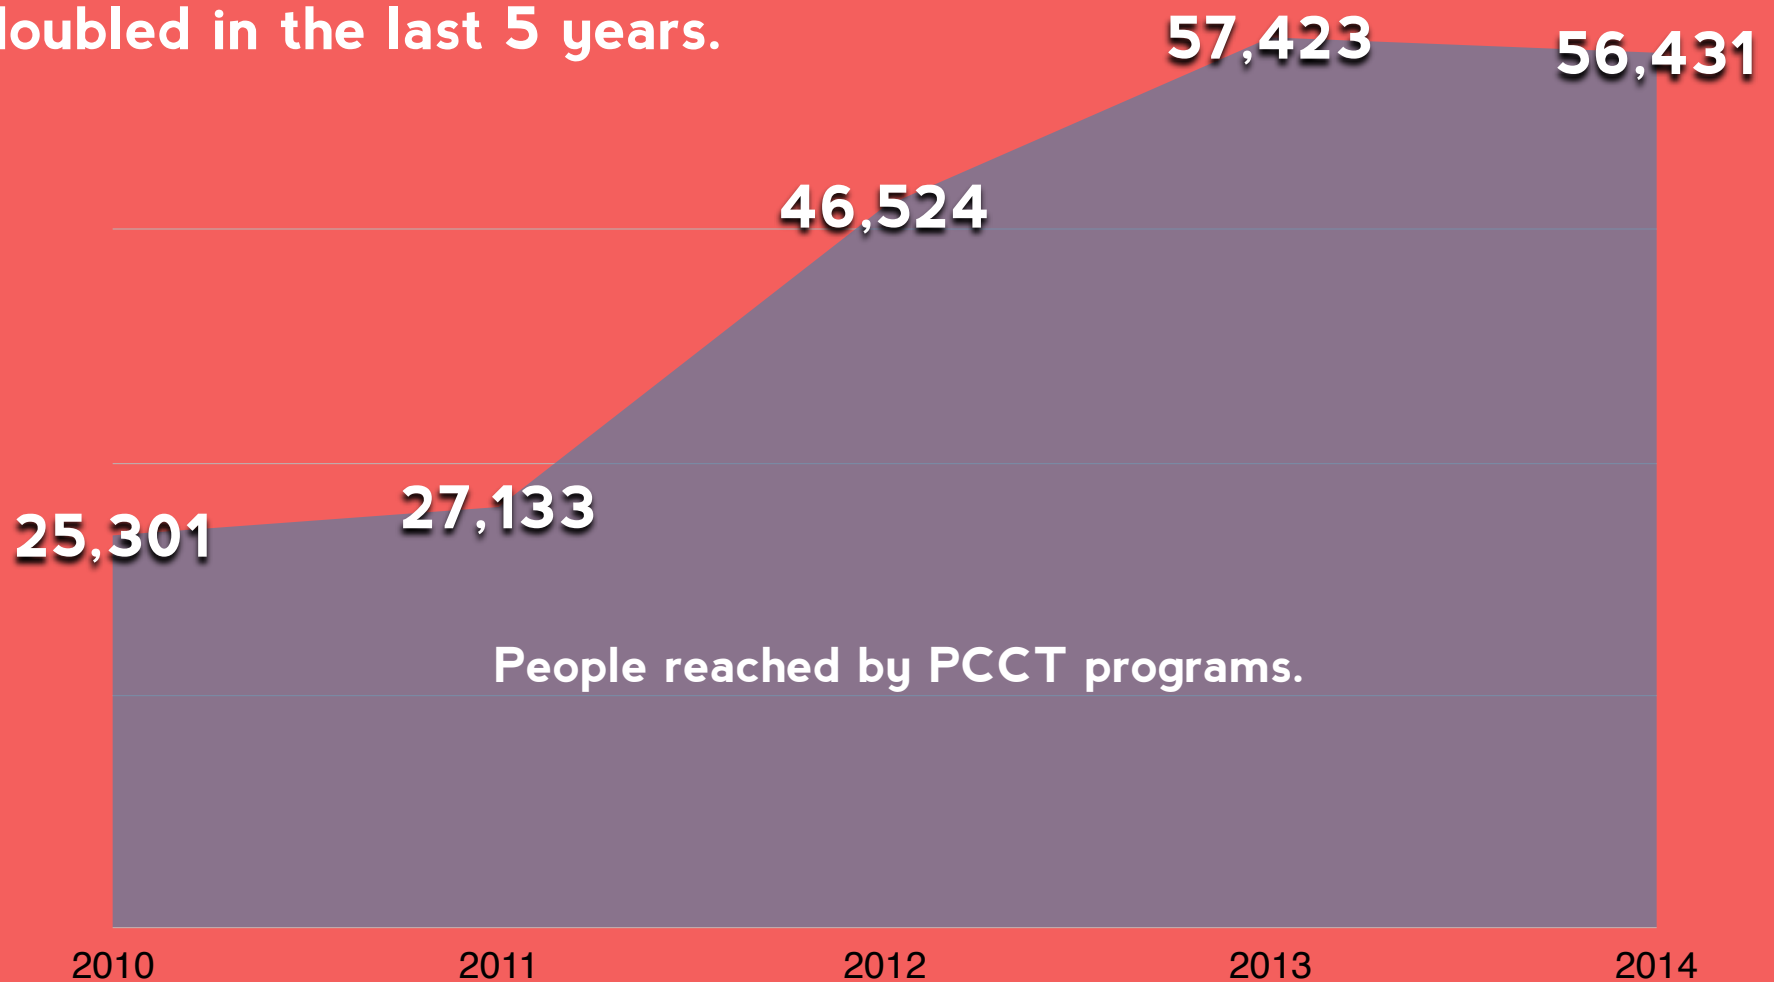

It is a privilege for me to support The Parent Child Center and to serve on its Board.

Sarah E. Hansel
