In 2019, there were 2,849 confirmed cases of child abuse and neglect in Tulsa County alone. Investing in child safety and prevention services in our community benefits us all. We could not accomplish our goals without the support, involvement and enthusiasm of our committed supporters.

thank you.

Our Mission
Preventing child abuse and neglect through education, treatment and advocacy.
Thanks to The Parent Child Center of Tulsa, I have exceeded my goals in life and have become the best mother I can be. I want to tell everybody that if it were not for PCCT, I probably never would have made it through. They gave me the strength and hope to wake up every morning to fight for the new life I have.

– Miranda, PCCT Client

Our Youth Programs ensure educators, administrators and other adults know how to keep children safe. Our Kids on the Block (KOB) program teaches young children how to identify, report and cope with adverse experiences through puppetry.

- 39,861 students attended
- 482 KOB shows in 103 locations

PCCT’s Anti-Bullying Collaboration (ABC) works to prevent bullying among children and youth. ABC’s goal is to equip children and youth with skills necessary to prevent bullying and other anti-social behavior in schools and the community.

- 25 local and state partners

Registered nurses offer newborn education in all six Tulsa birthing hospitals. New moms and other caregivers receive vital information about the prevention of shaken baby syndrome and the importance of promoting early brain development by talking, singing and reading to infants. PCCT has expanded to reach more males by providing education and resources in local barbershops.

- 37,623 adults received our education

Registered nurses visit new parents and caregivers in their homes after discharge from the hospital. Nurses share in the joy of a new baby, assess unique family risks and respond to immediate needs for support and guidance.

- Nurses supported 1,704 new parents and caregivers

Parents as Teachers promotes the optimal early development, learning and health of children by supporting and engaging parents and caregivers in their homes.

- Parent educators served 706 adults and children

PCCT’s licensed professional therapists provide counseling support to families when there is an allegation or pattern of abuse and neglect, or when children have experienced trauma. The goal of these services is to prevent future incidents of abuse and/or neglect in the current generation and stop the cycle of abuse across future generations.

- 987 adults and children received treatment services

Our Family Support programs identify, mitigate and prevent risk for children by engaging with families in their homes. Parent educators provide education, support and referrals to resources.

PCCT 3 Levels of Child Abuse & Neglect Prevention Services:

- Family Support
- Youth Programs
- Therapy

IN 2019:

We reached 81,441 children and adults through three levels of child abuse and neglect prevention services.

Hope is the belief that tomorrow will be better than today, and that you have the power to make it so.

– Dr. Chan Hellman

That all parents have the knowledge and skills to protect, nurture and provide for their own children.

HOPE RISES HERE

The Parent Child Center of Tulsa’s primary focus for the services we provide is hope.
